New Haven, CT, Yale University, Beinecke Rare Book & Manuscript Library, Osborn fa35

Description: 4 items (10 p.). - modern red quarter-morocco slipcase; gilt spine title and decorations. - Purchased from Sophie Dupré on the James Marshall and Marie-Louise Osborn Fund, 2001.

Notes: -Holograph letters on paper, written and signed in a Humanist cursive. Addressed to Raffaello de' Medici, nuncio to the Imperial court at Antwerp, Ghinucci's letters contain detailed descriptions of his arrival at the court of Henry VIII; the receptions of foreign ambassadors and the nature of their business; and Ghinucci's impressions of Henry VIII's own advisors and diplomats. He comments particularly on Cardinal Wolsey and Cuthbert Tunstall, who was being dispatched to Antwerp as ambassador. Other subjects include the illness of Giovanni Matteo; the business activities in London of Florentine merchants; and Ghinucci's strong dislike of the cold English weather during his first visit to the country.
